CPSA-DC114
2025 Online Workshop
“Impressionism in Colored Pencil”

October 18, 2025
10:00am - 4:00pm

Our online workshop this year will feature Philip Schorn, an accomplished colored pencil artist from Illinois. Phil's art has been featured in Colored Pencil Magazine, and Ann Kullberg's Color Magazine, and he has been the featured artist in a large number of other publications. Phil's work has been chosen for both Ann Kullberg's Color Pencil Treasures and Color Pencil Hidden Treasures. He teaches both Jelly Bean and Pajama Classes on Ann Kullberg's website. He belongs to several art organizations, including CPSA, where he holds CPX status.

If you would like to learn more about Phil, please visit his website at

The image above left is our subject matter for the workshop. It is based on a painting of Antibes, France by Claude Monet. Phil's workshop will focus on working on a larger scale in colored pencil, and rendering a drawing that more resembles a painting.

Registration for the workshop will open September 1, 2025. The fee is $80 for members, and $90 for non-members.
